Audio version:

Old Keldar was a witcher from the Griffin School, known for his expertise in monster knowledge and responsible for tutoring young witchers in the subject. He had committed the entirety of Liber Tenebrarum to memory and was known for his short temper, especially when h[illegible] to provide correct answers. He would often mock them by suggesting they'd foolishly attempt to hunt vampires armed with Lebioda figurines and garlic. Coën had a particular fondness for Keldar.[1]

Keldar survived the destruction of Kaer Seren, which was caused by an avalanche triggered by mages. He was the only survivor among those present at the fortress and continued to guard its ruins, loyal to the memory of his beloved school.[2]
